Rockport

LESLIE BARTLETT

Cape Ann's seaside village of Rockport welcomes you with its miles of lovely beaches, boulder-strewn paths through woods and glades, and that unique, magical light that has inspired painters since Winslow Homer. In an hour's drive or train ride north of Boston, you can enjoy a romantic getaway, seaside dining, art galleries and museums, and a unique shopping experience. Be entertained and enchanted in Rockport's magnificent new oceanside music hall, the Shalin Liu Performance Center. Spend a day, or better yet stay a while at a charming Rockport inn or B&B.

America's oldest seaport, Gloucester is located 35 miles north of Boston. Gloucester is situated at the center of Cape Ann, has one of the finest harbors in Massachusetts and remains one of the busiest fishing ports on the Eastern seaboard.

DALE BLANK

MARION BAYLY

Visitors are drawn to Gloucester's rich New England history, natural beauty, extraordinary beaches, fresh seafood and on-water activities — especially the popular whale watching excursions. Gloucester also hosts a sizable artist population, many of whom can be found on Rocky Neck, one of the oldest working art colonies in America. And Gloucester's vibrant live music scene offers anything from rock to classical or jazz at one of Gloucester's many bistros and restaurants.

Manchester-by-the-Sea

Manchester-by-the-Sea is a residential community wrapped around one of New England's most picturesque harbors. Visitors are attracted to the quaint shops, fine dining, and historic buildings.

TOM ROBINSON-COX

DALE BLANK
